FINANCE (FIN)

FIN 474 Investments (3)
Prerequisite(s): FIN 301 or equivalent.
A survey of investment principles and practices. Emphasis is given to security analysis and portfolio management, with special attention focused on the individual investor.

FIN 515 Financial Management (3)
Prerequisite(s): BA 511.
Emphasis on corporate financial decision making with a focus on business financing and investment decisions. Additional selected topics include: analysis of financial statements, security valuation, cash flow projection, financial forecasting, working capital management and multinational financial management.

FIN 574 Investments (3)
Prerequisite(s): FIN 515 or FIN 301 or equivalent.
A survey of investment principles and practices. Emphasis is given to security analysis and portfolio management, with special attention focused on the individual investor.

FIN 589 Internship in Finance (3)
Prerequisite(s): Approval of the instructor and approval of the MBA Director.
Provides the graduate student with practical experience in the field of finance via a "real-world" work experience arrangement. Grades: Pass/Fail.

FIN 590 International Finance (3)
Prerequisite(s): FIN 515 or equivalent. application relative to U.S. and international financial activities including financial institutions, trade agreements, economic policies, investment action, and multinational enterprise.
Integrated treatment of theory and application relative to U.S. and international financial activities including financial institutions, trade agreements, economic policies, investment action, and multinational enterprise.

FIN 598 Independent Research (3)
Prerequisite(s): Completion of 18 semester hours of graduate courses including a three-semester hour quantitative course. approval of the MBA Director. In-depth study of selected topic(s).
Approval of the instructor and approval of the MBA Director. In-depth study of selected topic(s).