

ENGLISH - TEACHING COLLEGE LITERATURE (GRADUATE CERTIFICATE AND MICROCREDENTIAL)

The "Teaching College Literature" Graduate Certificate and Microcredential is a nine (9) semester hour Microcredential that provides individuals with the knowledge and skills needed to teach the American and English survey course sequences at any two- or four-year college. Students pursuing this Graduate Certificate and Microcredential take coursework on teaching the American and English college literature survey courses, as well as a course on literary criticism that will inform their pedagogy.

A student who completes this Graduate Certificate and Microcredential may apply the nine (9) hours of credit toward the MA with a major in English or the MA with a major in Integrated Studies. The nine (9) hours of credit may also be applied toward the MSE in Secondary Education: English Language Arts 6-12 or the Alternative Class A MSE in Secondary Education: English Language Arts 6-12. All coursework for the MA or MSE must be completed within six years. Hours earned through a graduate certificate/microcredential program may only be applied to one graduate degree.

Please review our Graduate Certificate Disclosure (<http://www.jsu.edu/graduate/disclosure.html>) information.
