

SPORT MANAGEMENT - NON-PROFESSIONAL EDUCATOR CERTIFICATION (MASTER OF SCIENCE)

The chief objective of the Master of Science (MS) with a major in Sport Management (non-professional educator certification) is to provide students with the knowledge, skills, and abilities required to meet the demands of the job market in the sport industry.

Application Deadlines

Deadline dates for applications and receipt of all required materials are one month prior to the start of the semester. If applications are submitted within a month of the start date, the Graduate School will make every effort to process them before the start of the semester. However, there is no guarantee the student will be admitted and able to register for courses.

Admission Requirements for the MS with a Major in Sport Management (Non-Professional Educator Certification)

Admission to the non-certification concentration does not require bachelor's-level professional educator certification.

Applicants who meet the general admission requirements to graduate studies are eligible for admission to the MS with a major in sport management (non-professional educator certification). All applications are reviewed by Sport Management graduate faculty for admission approval into the program. A particular undergraduate major is not specified for admission to this program; however, a related field is recommended.

Unconditional Admission

- Applicants may be eligible for unconditional admission to the program with a GPA on the initial undergraduate degree of at least 2.75 on a 4.00 scale.

Conditional Admission

- Applicants who fail to meet the 2.75 GPA requirement for unconditional admission may be admitted as conditional admission to the program.

Applicants who are granted conditional admission must achieve a GPA of at least 3.00 on the first 12 graduate hours attempted. Failure to meet these conditions will result in the student being dropped from graduate studies.

Minimum Requirements for the MS with a Major in Sport Management (Non-Professional Educator Certification)

An overall 3.00 GPA is required on all coursework attempted for the master's degree. Transfer credit cannot be used to raise the GPA to the required 3.00.
