

CANNABIS SCIENCE MICROCREDENTIAL

---

The microcredential in Cannabis Science will prepare students with the knowledge base necessary to contribute to the growing field of scientific research and support of patients in the emerging field of medical cannabis. A minimum of nine (9) hours is required.

| Course                       | Title                        | Credits     |
|------------------------------|------------------------------|-------------|
| Required courses:            |                              |             |
| BY 293                       | Fundamentals of Horticulture | 3           |
| BY 420                       | Applied Medical Cannabis     | 3           |
| Choose one of the following: |                              | 3-4         |
| BY 419                       | Medical Botany               |             |
| CY 420                       | Chemistry of Cannabis        |             |
| Total Hours           |                              | 9-10 |