

MUSICAL THEATRE MINOR

The Musical Theatre minor is an interdisciplinary exploration of music theatre through the avenues of music, theatre, and dance. Students will develop skills blending intense music training, acting methodology, and dance practice and technique. These skills will be demonstrated through performance opportunities. Students with a background, interest, or passion in music theatre are encouraged to continue their studies and further explore the craft. This minor is not available to students majoring in music.

The Musical Theatre minor consists of 20 hours, which include:
