

SPEECH-LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY MINOR

The Speech-Language Pathology minor provides students with foundational knowledge in communication sciences and disorders, preparing them for advanced study in speech-language pathology or related health professions. This minor is designed to complement a variety of majors including Exercise Science, Education, Psychology, and Pre-Health Sciences, among others. Twenty-four (24) semester hours are required for the Speech-Language Pathology minor.

Course	Title	Credits
SPL 300	Introduction to Speech-Language Pathology	3
SPL 310	Anatomy and Physiology of Speech and Hearing	3
SPL 320	Language Development	3
SPL 330	Phonetics and Speech Science	3
SPL 370	Neurological Communication Disorders	3
SPL 380	Voice and Fluency Disorders	3
SPL 450	Introduction to Audiology	3
SPL 460	Speech Sound Disorders	3
Total Hours		24