

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL AND BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

Dean: Dr. Maureen Newton

306 Brewer Hall

The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences offers quality academic programs through traditional, hybrid, and online course offerings at the baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral level. We proudly serve students from the State of Alabama and the surrounding region, as well as students from all over the world who want an excellent education. Our academic programs prepare for success in graduate school and for immediate careers.

Our faculty and staff serve students in a manner that leads to transformative educational and interpersonal experiences. Students work with accomplished faculty who are engaged in innovative forms of teaching, scholarship, and service. The goal of the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences is to provide students with opportunities and experiences that lead to life-long personal and professional success. Graduates are prepared for careers in criminal justice, forensic investigations, emergency management and disaster preparedness, public administration, political science, psychology, sociology, social work, and military science.
