

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES MINOR

Students whose interest and/or career plans have an international orientation may wish to pursue a minor in International Studies. Twenty-four semester hours, distributed as follows, are required for the International Studies minor.

Students minoring in International Studies must take HY 101 Western Civilization I (3) and HY 102 Western Civilization II (3) and must take GY 120 World Regional Geography (3) and GY 220 Human Geography (3). The history courses and geography courses may also count toward the general studies curriculum history and social/behavioral science requirements.

Course	Title	Credits
Political Science ¹
PSC 100	Introduction to American Government (Political Science majors must take an additional course from the Global Studies field) ¹	3
PSC 232	Introduction to International Relations	3
PSC 423	American Foreign Policy	3
Select one of the following:		3
PSC 373	Governments of Europe
PSC 375	Governments of Latin America
PSC 377	Governments of the Middle East
PSC 430	Governments of Asia
Geography ¹
Select one of the following:		3
GY 320	Political Geography
GY 341	Economic Geography
GY 466	Topics in Cultural Geography (WI)
Select one of the following:		3
GY 351	Advanced Regional Study
AN 345	Cultural Anthropology
AN 347	Current Social Issues ²
Electives
Select two from the following:		6
Foreign Language-by advisement ²
History ²
HY 302	History of Great Britain, 1689 to the Present
HY 332	Russian History through the Revolutions of 1917
HY 333	Russian History from 1855 to the Present
HY 404	The Age of the Cold War: Europe, 1945-Present
HY 409	Modern France
HY 465	The British Empire and Commonwealth
HY 468	Constitutional History of England
HY 473	Modern Middle East
HY 480	Colonial Latin America
HY 481	Modern Latin America
HY 483	United States-Latin American Relations
HY 485	History of Mexico
Sociology
SY 366	Religion, Spirituality, and Cults

College of Business and Industry

EC 450	International Economics
FIN 434	International Finance
MGT 496	International Management

Total Hours 24

- ¹ Courses counted toward the major may not also be counted toward the International Studies minor.
- ² Where possible, all area-specific courses should focus on the same area: Western Europe, the former Soviet Union and Eastern Europe, Far East, Latin America, the Middle East, etc.